On the Light Side

A man dies and goes to Heaven. Of course, St. Peter meets him at the Pearly Gates.

St. Peter says, "Here is how it works. You need 100 points to make it to Heaven. You tell me all the good things you've done, and I give you a certain number of points for each item, depending on how good it was. When you reach 100 points, you get in"

"Okay," the man says, "I was married to the same woman for 50 years and never cheated on her, even in my heart."

"That's wonderful!" says St. Peter. "That's worth three points."

"Three points?" he says, slightly concerned. "Well, I attended church all my life and supported its ministry with my tithes and service."

"Terrific!" says St. Peter. "That's certainly worth a point."

"One point!" the man groans, now really getting worried. "I started a soup kitchen in my city and worked in a shelter for homeless veterans."

"Fantastic. That's good for two more points," said St. Peter.

"Two points!" the man cried. "At this rate the only way I get into Heaven is by the grace of God!"

"BINGO, 100 POINTS! COME ON IN!"
